UNPARALLELED GOOD FORTUNE!

A CALIFORNIA GOLD MINE found at Luck's Office! The Grand Prize of $30,000 in a Whole Ticket, and another of $20,000, both sold by LUCK in the short space of 60 days.

LUCK has the pleasure of announcing to the public the sale of another brilliant prize of $30,000 in a Whole Ticket, which was sent to a correspondent in Hanover county. The ticket was in PAINE'S Lottery of course, and was paid on presentation by LUCK. This further evidence of the superior good luck of the Tickets in lotteries under the management of D. PAINE & CO., (in which alone are the large prizes wild,) should be a guide to all in search of fortune to be particular to buy PAINE'S Tickets, which can be had of LUCK.

AGENCY OF CLAIMS.

MY connection with the Government having ceased, I purpose, for the future, to devote myself to that business—the prosecution of lemands on the Departments—for which my long service and experience in them have given we perhaps peculiar advantages.

As Agent and Autorney, I offer my services, especially to the great body of Mail Contractors and Postmasters, whether late or now in office: to Members of Congress; and to the great numbers in every part of the United States, who have heretofore transacted business with me in person or by letter, whether since my entrance into the Post Office Department in 1826, or previously, whilst employed in the Treasury or War Departments. To these official and other friends—to those to whom they may kindly make known my business or induce to employ me, and indeed to all, it seems only necessary for me to say, in advance, that any business they may commit to my hands shall receive the same prompt and faithful attention which has characterized, I trust, my whole official conduct.

A STONISING to relate, a method has at length been discovered and A brought to perfection, too, by which DAGUERREOTYPES OF PAPER AND ON PLATE GLASS are taken, and any number of copies may be obtained after the first one is secured. The names of these inventions are, when on paper, "TALBOTYPE," and those taken on glass, are called by the inventors "HYALOTYPE," and those taken on glass, are called by the inventors "HYALOTYPE," and those taken on glass, are called by the inventors "HYALOTYPE," and those taken on glass, are called by the inventors "HYALOTYPE," and those taken on the smallest miniature, either on paper or glass, and colored in the best manner. Those on glass are admirably adapted to microscopic exhibitions, from their richness of tone and softness of outline; whist the paper ones afford the advantages for framing, &c., which the finest engravings cannot surpass. The public are invited to call and see the specimens on paper, at No. 139, Main street, above Go. vernor, at the Daguerrian Gallery of WM. A. PRATT, & CO.

D. PAINE & CO.,

MANAGERS OF LOTTERIES, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

PAINE'S management against the World!—We have the pleasure of announcing to the public the sale of another Grand Prize of PAINE's Thousand Dollars, which was sold by C. B. LUCK, Vender of PAINE's Tickets—making the handsome sum of Sixty-Six Thousand Dollars sold in two prizes in a little over twelve months. The whole of $36,000 sold by PURCELL & CO.; or the whole of $30,000 sold by PURCELL & CO.; or the whole of $30,000 sold by PURCELL & CO.; or the whole of $30,000 sold by LUCK, both in PAINE'S Lottery, will amount to more money than any ten prizes sold by any management in this city whin the past four or five years. Another of the repeated evidences that adventurers should buy only in Lotteries under the management of D. PAINE & CO. Orders for Tickets will meet our usual prompt attention if addressed to D. PAINE & CO.,

FLEETWOOD ACADEMY, KING AND QUEEN. THE TEXT SESSION Of this institution will commence on the 20th Jan uary and terminate on the 20th July, 1850.

The continuous operation of the school for the last twelve years, will an unvarying patronace, is the strongest proof we can offer or its meriand appreciation by the public. During this time not a few of its students have won the highest honore at most of the Colleges in the Sate many without a collegiate course have at once obtained fluorative situations as teachers, and still more have been prepared creditably and successfully to discharge active vocations of life.

The renarkable healthiness of the situation may be inferred from school since its establishment, and very less physician—not one this session.

Mr. J. C. Councill, my present associate, has been re-energed, whose high attainments, scrupulous fidelity and tried fitness in all respects are of the highest order. The marked, it not invidious compliment conveyed in the annexed notification, shows in what estimation his scholarship is held by the Professors and Board of Visitors of the Ministry Institute. A certificate or the standard of our pupils from Professor Harrison of the University is also submitted.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, Nov. —, 1849.

I have had in my classes some young, gentlemen who have received their preparatory education in Fleetwood Academy, conducted by Mr. O. White, and take pleasure in stating that they came with such preparation, having read all the Latin and Greek authors usually embraced in a preparatory course, as enabled them to enter the Senior Latin and Greek Classes and to make good progress in the studies therein pursued. I may add, that they have been inferior to none in gentlemanly conduct and in attention to their studies, thus reflecting credit on the teacher who had charge of their previous training.

GESSNER HARRISON,

Professor Ancient Languages.

The course of instruction will include the various branches constituting a sound English education—Latin, Greek, French, Tactus and a full Mathamatical course, theoretical and practical, corresponding with that taught at the Military Institute and the University of Virginia.

The discipline of the School, based on an experience of many years in the training and direction of youth, will be such as to ensure order and obedience—mild, yet wholesome, firm and decided.

TERMS: For tuition in all the branches and board, including every necessary except lights, for the first session, ending the 20th July, §81, payable the 20th July, for Jul session, ending the 20th July, §81, payable the 20th July, for Jul session, ending the 20th December, $56.
